Shortly after passage of the McCarran-Ferguson Act in 1945, the NILS Red Books were developed to provide insurance industry professionals with a single, authoritative source of legal and regulatory information for each jurisdiction. For over 50 years the NILS Red Books has served as the industry's premier print source of information on state insurance requirements. Today, it remains the industry standard and the only complete collection of insurance laws and regulations in print—covering all 50 states, the federal government, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Get the full range of regulatory information you need to comply and compete

The NILS Red Books deliver all the regulatory information that insurers, re-insurers, agents and brokers need to comply and compete.

Get all the facts on:

- Insurance Laws
- Insurance Related Laws
- Insurance Regulations
- Insurance Related Regulations
- Insurance Department Advisory Publications (varies by state): Bulletins, Circular Letters, Directives, etc.
- Selected Attorney General Opinions

Subscribe today to:

- Identify pertinent and critical information quickly. Wolters Kluwer Financial Services employs a unique, industry-specific indexing system designed to overcome state-to-state and other complex differences in terminology
- Receive regular updates and revisions that ensure each volume is current, accurate and useful
- Review the full text of newly enacted or amended laws before they are officially codified
- Identify and track new laws today that will regulate your business tomorrow
- Get Related Laws and Related Regulations for access to critical information that is tied directly to insurance requirements.

To fully understand an insurance statute, you need the regulations that implement, interpret, or clarify that law. Similarly, to understand a regulation, you need the statute that initiated it, as well as other documents that comment upon and interpret it. The NILS Red Books provide all of this and more in one complete, organized, and easy-to-use collection.

Exclusive Indexing For Thorough Searches

Each volume includes a detailed index that uses our standard list of insurance-specific index terms, as well as lines of business. This allows for comparable and thorough search results when you are searching in multiple jurisdictions and across types of law. Index updates are included as a part of the update service for all NILS Red Book volumes.

Access NILS Advance Laws

Review the full text of newly enacted or amended laws months before they are officially codified. This information is vital for formulating a compliance response and for strategic planning on new opportunities. Identify and track new laws from introduction through enactment to codification. These are today's laws that will affect your business tomorrow.

About NILS Red Books

- The NILS Red Books is a comprehensive library of insurance laws, insurance related laws, regulations, insurance related regulations, and other insurance regulatory materials published by Wolters Kluwer Financial Services. All titles are published in loose-leaf binders which are included with your new order.
- The insurance law and related law volumes include the Advance Law service.
- Full book updates to all Red Book volumes and Advance Law updates are sent when published. An invoice is sent 3-5 days after the material is mailed. Shipping and handling charges are added to each invoice.

Recompiled or split Volumes

- From time to time, Wolters Kluwer Financial Services will publish recompiled volumes of the NILS Red Books, incorporating all the latest revisions, and will automatically send you these volumes. Recompilations are billed at the time of shipment.
- At times, we may determine it is necessary to split volumes, thus adding an additional binder to a set. Split volumes are included with the cost of your subscription.

Payments Note

- All invoices are payable 30 days following your receipt of material. To ensure proper credit to your account, please include the remittance copy of your invoice with payment.
- Your invoice is subject to state or local sales tax, which will be calculated and noted on your invoice.
- When making payment for another company (such as a subsidiary with a different name), please note pertinent details with your check, including the appropriate customer account number.
- All charges are stated and payable in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. bank only.

Shipping and Handling Charges

- Your order will be sent via United Parcel Service (UPS) using standard (surface) transportation. Your order will ship approximately 7-10 days following receipt of your order in Chicago. Please be certain to include your street address (not a P.O. Box #) on your order to ensure prompt delivery.
- All NILS Red Books updates, recompiled volumes and Advance Laws will be sent via First Class Mail or UPS.
- Shipping and handling charges are added to each invoice.
- All updates shipped to Canada are shipped via Common Carrier. All updates shipped to Guam, Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico will be sent via Federal Express or UPS.

Returns

- To receive credit for any returned material, you must return the material within 30 days of receipt in salable condition.
- When returning any material, please include a copy of your invoice and a brief explanation for the return.
- Always indicate your customer account number on all returns.

Lost and Missing Pages

- Please call 800-382-2424 to request missing pages or Advance Law reports. When missing or lost pages for a volume are requested, you will receive a full reprint of the entire volume. Missing or lost Advance Law pages will be replaced in their entirety for the current year. We reserve the right to invoice for replacement pages, or to charge for handling, if we determine the number of replacement pages you are requesting is excessive.

Note

- Certain terms and conditions noted above apply only to the NILS Red Books and may not be applicable to other Wolters Kluwer Financial Services' products. Your purchase of any Wolters Kluwer Financial Services product or service is subject to the then current prices, product availability or discontinuance, and the terms and conditions applicable to that service, all of which are subject to change without notice. Wolters Kluwer Financial Services reserves the right to refuse service to anyone. Please retain for your records.
